

Press Release

9 July 2010

Peter Molyneux – moves to Armstrong Watson as Head of Agriculture in Yorkshire

Yorkshire accountancy firm Armstrong Watson has welcomed on board a new Agriculture Director.

Peter Molyneux, 42, joins Armstrong Watson as Agricultural Director and Head of Agriculture in Yorkshire, having spent the last 12 years working for HSBC Bank.

Peter has been brought on board by Armstrong Watson to initially focus on developing agriculture business and to head up its agriculture team in the Yorkshire area. He will be based at Armstrong Watson's Northallerton and Skipton offices.

"I have always been passionate about helping farming businesses with their financial needs. Agriculture finance has been at the core of my entire career, and I look forward to continuing this in my new role as Director of Agriculture at Armstrong Watson. I am really looking forward to the opportunity to work with the progressive and energetic team at Armstrong Watson," says Peter.

Chris Barrett, lead partner of Armstrong Watson's Yorkshire Group says: "Peter brings with him a wealth of experience in agriculture. It is great to have him as part of the team.

"Armstrong Watson is growing and we continue to add to our sector and technical specialist team."